

RIDGECREST

CAMP

Packing List

The following is a suggested list of clothing and items for camp. This list is by no means exhaustive, as many folks are apt to bring all their earthly belongings, and some bring nothing but a toothbrush. Also be forewarned that everything you bring is done so at your own risk and you WILL get dirty this summer. If you have any questions about what to bring, please give us a call and we will try to help.

Bible
Journal or notebook / pen
Alarm Clock
(Your Cell Phone cannot be used as an alarm clock, it must be kept in staff lounge)
Shorts
(1 pair of nice khaki shorts for Opening/Closing Day)
T-Shirts
Socks (Athletic)
A nicer shirt or two for worship, day off, etc.
A week's supply of underwear
Tennis Shoes
A pair of sandals (Chacos, Tevas, flip flops)
Jeans
Sweatshirts/Fleece
Rain Jacket (Outer Layer)
Swimwear
Single Sheet Sets (2)
Pillow and Pillow Cases
Towels and Washcloths
Blankets (one or two)
Laundry Bags or Laundry Basket
Sleeping Bag
Flashlight/Head lamp

Optional Items:

Backpack (for overnight hikes)
Devotional book
Hiking Shoes/Boots
Electric Fan
Surge Protector (plain extension cords can't be used)
Hammock
Bug Spray

Any costumes or clothing that could be used for programmatic elements (western, military fatigues, old Halloween costumes, wigs, sports jerseys)

For arrival dates, please refer to your contract or other communication with the Camp Leadership. There are many different arrival dates, based on your position and trainings needed. If you have a friend working at camp, do NOT assume that your arrival dates are automatically the same!
